As your #1 London Assembly List Candidate

About Me

- Born and raised as a Londoner, I believe the Tories and Sadiq Khan are failing our city
- I am a communications professional, helping campaigns refine their message and expand their appeal
- I am an experienced campaigner, having worked on the London Election campaign and as a London Assembly candidate
- I am an anti-racism campaigner, advising the party's leadership and shaping party policy on race equality

My 3 Promises as Candidate

1 Fight for Liberal Values

London is a liberal city but Labour have failed to deliver the change we need. I will fight for liberal values in City Hall.

I will push the Mayor to tackle discrimination in the Met Police, build the public transport infrastructure London needs to go green and defend London's place in Europe.

2 Expand Our Reach

I will use my skills as a communications professional to secure the media coverage we need to get cut through by running an eye-catching campaign with a clear message.

I've advised the party on how to engage with ethnic minority communities and will use my expertise to ensure our campaign incorporates all of London's communities.

3 A 32 Borough Campaign

I have campaigned across London from areas where we have MPs, through to areas with no Lib Dem councillors.

I will use this experience to ensure that every local party has the support they need and that our manifesto has the key messages required, to run successful campaigns in all 32 of London's boroughs.
