- b. Any Amendment to a Topical Motion submitted in the Welsh Language; and/or
- c. All Amendments to Topical Motions which were originally submitted in the Welsh Language.

4.2.1 If there is a discrepancy between the two languages with regard to any Amendments to Topical Motions, then the language in which the Topical Motion was submitted shall take precedence. Conference shall take appropriate steps to ensure that such discrepancies do not occur, especially if an Amendment is submitted in a different language to that of the original Topical Motion.

4.2.2 If there is a discrepancy between the two languages with regard to Emergency Motions, then the language in which the Emergency Motion was submitted shall take precedence.

F. DEBATES AT CONFERENCE

1. Order and Times for Debates

1.1 Sessions of a meeting of Conference may not start before the scheduled time for the session published in the Final Agenda. It is the responsibility of the Session Chair(s) to ensure that Sessions keep to time.

1.2 During Policy Debate Sessions and Business Debate Sessions the motions will be considered in the order in which they appear in the Final Agenda. The Session Chair shall have discretion to vary the amount of time for each debate within a Session.

1.3 During Topical & Emergency Debate Sessions the motions will be considered in the order in which they appear in the Conference Announcements and the Conference Updates. The Chair shall have discretion to allocate the amount of time for each debate within a session.

1.4 During the Autumn Conference, Reports will be considered in the order in which they appear in the Final Agenda. The Chair shall have discretion to allocate the amount of time for consideration of each report within a session.

2. Procedure for Each Debate

2.1 No debate which requires a decision which is to be voted upon may begin unless there is a minimum of 20 Voting Members present in the Conference Hall at the start of the debate. Debates may continue, however, if the number of Voting Members present in the Conference Hall falls below 20 during the debate with the exception of Motions to Amend the Constitution and Motions to Ratify Changes to the Constitution which require a quorum of one half of the registered Voting Members in respect of the relevant meeting of the Conference (Clause M.2 of the Welsh Constitution).

2.2 The procedure for each debate on a Motion shall be:

- a. The moving of the Motion;
- b. The moving of any Amendments to the motion, in the order in which they appear in Conference Announcements;
- c. A General Debate;
- d. The right of reply of the movers of any amendments (in the same order in which they were moved) (summations); and
- e. The right of reply of the mover of the motion (summation).

2.3 The moving of a motion or amendment or the right of reply to either may be moved or replied to formally without a speech. This can be done only by the person nominated to speak at that point. If the mover of a motion or amendment chooses to formally move their motion or amendment, they may then be called in the General Debate provided that they are not the nominated person to either sum up the motion or amendment.

3. Speakers in a Debate

3.1 The mover of a motion or an amendment must be a Voting Member who has paid the requisite registration fee for that Meeting of the Conference and shall be nominated by the person or body named as having submitted the Motion or Amendment before the start of the Session.

3.2 The mover of a motion or an amendment shall either reply to the debate themselves or they may nominate another voting member to do so before the start of the debate.

3.3 The Chair shall decide who is called to speak in a general debate. The Chair shall only call Voting Members and non-voting members who have paid the requisite registration fee for that Meeting of the Conference and have completed a Speakers' Card. The Chair may call an Observer to speak in a debate if that person has made a written request to the Conference Committee in advance of the Session demonstrating that they have a particular and relevant expertise in the subject being debated and the Conference Committee have agreed to that request. The Chair shall also ensure that there is a balance to the debate between the different viewpoints at the Conference.

3.4 During the general debate the Chair must call, if they have been nominated in writing, before the start of the relevant Session:

- a. a speaker nominated by the Policy Development Committee to give the Policy Development Committee's views on any Policy, Topical or Emergency motion;
- b. A speaker nominated by the relevant Senedd or Parliamentary Group (dependent on whether the legislative competency lies (in terms of Liberal Democrat Policy) with Parliament or the Senedd) to give the Group's views on any Policy, Topical or Emergency motion; and/or
- c. A speaker nominated by the relevant Party Committee to give their views on Business Motions.

3.5 The Chair may not call anyone to speak twice during a general debate, nor may they call the proposer of the Motion or any amendments unless they have formally moved the motion or amendment and are not the designated person to make the summation speech, nor anyone nominated to reply to the motion during the general debate.

4. Length of Speeches

4.1 The length of time for speeches by proposers, summators and general speakers in a debate shall be published in the Final Agenda. These timings may be varied by Conference Committee and any such changes shall be published in Conference Announcements, save that a Session Chair may vary these timings based on the number of cards that have been received for a particular debate.

5. Submitting a Request to Speak

5.1 Members wishing to speak in a debate must submit a request to speak on an official Speakers' Card submitted to the Speakers' Table in good time prior to the start of the debate.

5.2 Speakers' Cards must ask for the following information:

- a. Speaker's Name;
- b. Local Party;
- c. Any Positions held in Party;
- d. Any Elected positions held;
- e. Whether they intend to speak for or against the motion and/or amendments; and
- f. And other information which the Conference Committee deems necessary.

G. VOTES

1. When do Votes Take Place?

1.1 At the end of each debate where a decision needs to be made Conference shall vote on the motion and any amendments before it.

2. Announcing the Conference's Intention to Vote

2.1 Before calling the last speaker in a debate the Chair shall announce that the voting on any amendments and/or the substantive motion shall take place in X minutes. (X minutes shall be the time allotted for that speech.)

3. Announcing the Start of the Vote

3.1 Once the announced time for voting has elapsed the Chair shall announce that Conference is going to vote and instruct that Voting Members be seated in order for their vote to be counted unless a voting Member is acting as a teller in the counting of votes and that the doors to the Conference Hall be closed. At this point no-one is permitted to enter the Conference Hall until voting is completed and the Chair instructs the doors to be re-opened.

4. Order of Votes

4.1 The order of votes shall be:

- a. Establishing if Conference is for or against accepting each amendment (if there are any amendments), in the order that the amendments were moved; and
- b. Establishing if Conference is in favour or against the substantive motion as it stands after any amendments have been determined.

5. Separate Votes

5.1 The Chair, in consultation with the Chair of Conference Committee, shall decide if a separate vote may be taken on a part of a motion or amendment.

5.2 Any voting member may request a separate vote on a part of a motion or amendment provided that it is received by the Chair prior to the calling of the final speaker in a debate.

6. Method of Voting

6.1 Voting cards shall be issued at each Meeting of Conference to all Voting Members which shall form part of their Conference Accreditation. All votes shall be by show of such voting cards.

7. Counting of Votes

7.1 The result of a vote shall be decided on the Chair's assessment of a show of voting cards unless a counted vote is:

- a. directed by the Session Chair or Conference Committee; or
- b. requested by 25 Voting Members present in the Conference Hall or by 20% of Voting Members submitted to the Session Chair before the calling of the final speaker in the debate.

7.2 A recount may only be held at the discretion of the Chair and shall be a counted vote.

H. PROCEDURAL MOTIONS

1. Types of Procedural Motions

1.1 The types of Procedural Motion which can be moved are:

- a. Move to Next Business;
- b. Reference Back;
- c. Suspension of Standing Orders; or
- d. Exclusion of the Press and Public

2. Who can Propose a Procedural Motion?

2.1 The following can propose a procedural motion:

- a. Any Voting Member who has not yet spoken during the debate at which the procedural motion is taken;
- b. The nominee of a Party Committee given in writing to the Chair in advance of the moving of the motion.

3. Proposing a Procedural Motion

3.1 The proposal of a procedural motion must be made in writing to the Chair prior to the start of the summing up speeches. The proposal must:

- a. not be more than 75 words;
- b. explain the reasons for the procedural motion;
- c. if a motion to Suspend Standing Orders, specify which part of Standing Orders are to be suspended; and
- d. if a Suspension of Standing Orders or Exclusion of the Press and Public, be clear about when the action proposed in the motion would come to an end.

4. When to Consider Procedural Motions

4.1 Procedural motions should be considered:

- a. Immediately after the moving of the motion it refers to if it is proposed before that time;
- b. Immediately after the moving of all the amendments if it is proposed while the amendments are being proposed; or
- c. Immediately after the speaker currently speaking, if it is proposed during the General Debate.

5. Debating Procedural Motions

5.1 The Chair shall read out the proposal for a procedural motion.

5.2 The procedural motion shall only be debated if a majority of voting members in the Conference Hall wish to debate it. This decision shall be taken by a vote without giving notice of the vote nor closing of the doors.

5.3 The usual process for debate shall then take place for the procedural motion, save that the proposer of the motion under debate shall be the first to speak in the procedural motion debate and all speeches shall be limited to two minutes.

5.4 Speakers who wish to speak in the procedural motion debate may be permitted to speak in the full debate if they have not yet been called to speak in the debate and similarly if a Speaker has already spoken in the main debate this shall not preclude them from speaking during the procedural motion debate.

6. Voting on Procedural Motions

6.1 Voting on Procedural Motions shall follow the same format as voting on other motions.

7. Outcomes of Procedural Motions

7.1 If a procedural motion falls, the debate which was under way continues from the point it was interrupted.

7.2 If a Move to Next Business is passed, the Chair shall immediately move to the next debate in the Session unless there are no more debates in the session. In which case, the Meeting of Conference shall adjourn until the scheduled start time for the next session unless that has already passed. In that case the next session shall start immediately.

7.3 If a Reference Back is passed, the Chair shall immediately move to the next debate in the Session unless there are no more debates in the session. In which case, the Meeting of Conference shall adjourn until the scheduled start time for the next debate unless that has already passed. In that case the next session shall start immediately. After the Meeting of Conference the Conference Committee shall identify the relevant Party Committee and request that it acts upon the Reference Back. The relevant Party Committee shall report back on what action has been taken on the Reference Back at the next meeting of Conference.

7.4 If a Suspension of Standing Orders is passed, the debate will continue with the relevant part of Standing Orders suspended.

7.5 If an Exclusion of the Press and Public Motion is passed, all non-Party members present in the Conference Hall will be asked to leave and the doors closed. The debate will then continue from the point it was interrupted with only party members allowed to enter the Conference Hall.

I. PROTOCOL FOR CANDIDATES IN A CANDIDATE SELECTION PROCESS WHICH IS ONGOING WHILST THERE IS A MEETING OF CONFERENCE

1. This protocol shall only apply to contested selections for Prospective Parliamentary Candidates and selections for Prospective Senedd Candidates (List and Constituency). Contested in terms of this protocol shall mean where there is more than one applicant for a position and not when there is only a single applicant standing against Re-Open Nominations (RON).
2. No Candidate involved in a contested selection may Chair or Aide any session at a meeting of Conference.
3. No Candidate involved in a contested selection may propose or summate a motion, amendment or Report to Conference.
4. Candidates involved in a contested selection may speak in any General Debate at Conference provide that they have submitted a Speakers' Card prior to the start of the debate, and if called to speak any other candidate in that particular selection who has also submitted a Speakers' Card prior to the start of the debate must also be called but they shall not make any reference to, or allude to, the selection process which they are involved in. No Candidate in a contested selection may submit a Speakers' Card once the relevant debate has started.
5. No Candidate involved in a contested selection may make a set-piece speech at a Meeting of Conference, save for the Party Leader. Any incumbent MS or MP who is seeking re-selection may have a speech at a Conference provided that the Conference meets before the start of the Campaigning stage of the selection process and they speak only on matters relating to their portfolio(s) and no reference shall be made to the selection process.

J. AMENDMENTS TO THESE STANDING ORDERS

1. Any amendment to these Standing Orders may be submitted to Conference in the form of an amendable motion submitted in the same manner as any other motion to Conference.
2. A motion to amend these Standing Orders shall require a simple majority to pass.
3. Any motion to amend these Standing Orders which is accepted by Conference shall only take effect from the end of the Meeting of Conference at which the amendment was agreed.
