

COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP

The Constitutional Affairs Committee

Help keep our rules clear, fair, and accessible to members.

The Constitutional Affairs Committee looks after the Welsh Liberal Democrats' constitution and rules. It makes sure they're up to date, easy to follow, and support a fair and democratic organisation.

The committee also helps members and local parties navigate the rules and up their own constitutions.

What you'll do as a member of the Committee

- Help maintain and update the Party's constitution and associated rules.
- Review and recommend amendments to ensure rules are fair, relevant, and workable.
- Develop clear, user-friendly template constitutions for Local Parties.
- Work as part of a team to keep the Party's governance strong and transparent.

Useful Skills

- Clear and logical thinking.
- Ability to explain complex rules in simple terms.
- Attention to detail.
- Interest in good governance and fairness.
- Teamwork and problem-solving skills.
