

COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP

The Campaigns & Communications Committee

Help us tell our story and win campaigns across Wales.

As a member of the Campaigns & Communications Committee, you'll help shape how we communicate with the public and the media, and how we run campaigns both between and during elections. From social media to press relations, you'll play a role in making sure our voice is heard.

What you'll do as a member of the Committee

- Set the strategy for Wales-wide campaigns and by-election efforts.
- Support our digital presence, including social media.
- Act as a brand ambassador, ensuring clear and consistent messaging.
- Help the Party engage with diverse communities.
- Oversee the Party's presence at events of national importance.

Useful Skills

- Experience of on-the-ground campaigning in a variety of elections.
- Communications, media, or digital campaigning experience.
- Creativity and storytelling.
- Team working in campaign settings.
- Understanding of branding and messaging.
