

COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP

The Policy Development Committee

Turn liberal values into practical policies for Wales.

As a member of the Policy Development Committee, you'll help shape the policies we take to the Senedd, to elections, and into government. This is the committee where ideas become motions, manifestos, and proposals for change.

What you'll do as a member of the Committee

- Develop Party policy on devolved Welsh issues.
- Recommend motions for debate at Conference.
- Support candidates and elected representatives with policy advice.
- Help draft election manifestos.
- Build links with charities, the third sector and other organisations.

Useful Skills

- Interest in policy and current affairs.
- Research and analytical thinking.
- Ability to write clearly and persuasively.
- Collaborative working.
