Help us win!

Reform has £72m in the bank, but money alone doesn't guarantee seats: at the last election they spent £5.5m and won five, while we spent the same and won 72.

That's the arithmetic that matters, and it's why urgent funding now, to scale up what we know beats Reform, will make the difference at the next election.

In the constituencies that matter most, we are the ones standing between Reform and victory.

Give because you believe in liberal democracy, in equality, in tackling climate change, in opportunity, and in a fairer, more decent Britain.

Your donation pays for the messaging, the leaflets, the data and the campaign managers who turn that strategy into wins, because unlike Reform, we know exactly where the money came from.
